DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for women's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

"Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine is made, and don't forget that no other medicine put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all women's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations, tenderness and dragging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakness and disagreeable outbursts, peevishness and nervous symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as specially confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questions and personal "examinations" are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and carefully chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in the full-size paper cover, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One laxative, two or three cathartics.

MR. BRYAN ON THE ELECTION.

Commenting on the results of Tuesday's election, William J. Bryan last night issued the following statement in Lincoln, Neb.

"The election of 1906 indicates a trend in favor of the democratic party. It proves that the democratic party is growing stronger as republican policies are developed. In New York the party has won a signal victory, in spite of the tremendous efforts put forth in behalf of the administration. The republicans had all the money they wanted. They had the support of all the great corporations, and at the close they had whatever influence the administration could lend. The fact that the democrats elected every State officer excepting the governor shows that in the Empire State the republican party has been repudiated."

"The defeat of Mr. Hearst, the democratic and Independent League candidate for governor, who is a great disappointment to his friends and to the party, is explained by facts which rob Mr. Hughes' victory of much of its political significance. Mr. McCarren, whom Mr. Hearst denounced as a boss, threw his influence to Hughes and cut down Mr. Hearst's vote in Brooklyn. Mayor McClellan, the legality of whose election Mr. Hearst had denied, used his influence for Mr. Hughes, and cut down the Hearst vote in New York. Mr. Jerome, the prosecuting attorney of New York, who had also been attacked by Mr. Hearst, supported the republican ticket, and his influence was felt in Greater New York. Mr. Croker, during the last days of the campaign, made an attack upon Mr. Hearst, which doubtless weakened the democratic candidate among the Tammanyites. Mr. Murphy, the head of Tammany, while supporting the ticket, could not put much enthusiasm into the campaign, owing to the personal controversies which he had had with Mr. Hearst. It is evident, therefore, that Mr. Hughes owes his victory not to republican votes, but to democratic votes, brought to him by the very men whom he and the republican leaders have been denouncing for years."

"President Roosevelt cannot find very much cause for rejoicing in the New York returns. To have his own State go democratic cannot be gratifying to him, and to find that his personal attack upon Mr. Hearst had little influence on the result, compared with the influence exerted by Mr. McCarren, Murphy and Croker, will not gladden his Thanksgiving day. The President's personal attack on Mr. Hearst was in bad taste, to say the least, and the failure of the attack to favorably impress the public ought to be a warning for the future. If the trend toward democracy continues as strong for the next two years as it has been for the last two years, New York can be counted among the democratic states in 1908, and Mr. Hearst is in a position to do valiant work in securing a national triumph for progressive, democratic ideas."

South to Celebrate.

The one hundredth anniversary of General Lee's birthday will be celebrated in a most fitting and appropriate manner by the whole South, and the chairman of the joint committee having in charge the arrangements is sending out the following circular to the various Confederate organizations of the South.

As chairman of a joint committee of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society and of Lee Camp, No. 1, C. V., Richmond, I am directed on the part of these associations to remind you that the one hundredth anniversary of the birthday of General Robert E. Lee occurs on Saturday, January 19, 1907.

We propose to make an special celebration of this notable occasion in our city of Richmond, and desire to secure a general observance of the day throughout the land to the honor of our great chieftain, and for the instruction and inspiration of our people and their sons and daughters.

We respectfully suggest that there be provided a celebration of the day in the capital cities of the Southland, and in every section of the State, if possible; that a public service be held on that day at 12 m., hoping that it may be approximately simultaneous; and that, as in Richmond, there be used in all the services the hymns, "How Firm a Foundation, Ye Saints of the Lord," and "For All the Saints Who From Their Labors Rest."

Mrs. JOSEPH BRYAN, Pres. Confederate Memorial Literary Society, JAMES VASS, Commander of Lee Camp, No. 1, C. V.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fonta, Postmaster at Riverport, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. 50 cents.

Nasal Catarrh. An inflammation of the delicate membrane lining the air-passages is not cured by any mixtures taken into the stomach. Don't waste time on them. Take Ely's Cream Balm through the nostrils so that the fevered swollen tissues are reached at once. Never mind how long you have suffered nor how often you have been disappointed, as it has cured others by the thousand. All druggists, 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Thief With Mania for Rosewater.

A boudoir thief with a mania for rose perfumery has robbed four women in their bedrooms in the past two nights and defied the police in Cleveland to take him. He has stolen jewelry and money and has aroused all four of his know victims, but was not routed until he had gained possession of their perfumery. Upon a slip of paper he dropped upon the floor in the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Briggs, Tuesday night, was found written: "I defy the police or anyone else to take me until my collection is complete." Mrs. Briggs opened her eyes to see the burglar bending over her dressing table and smelling an atomizer. He breathed a long "ah." She screamed. He jumped out the window. Three other women had similar experiences with the thief.

Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains no opiates. Conforms to Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by W. E. Creighton & Co., 401 King Street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea, is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take it as directed.

JEWELRY.

THE DINING-ROOM

is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastefully arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately.

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and lives up to the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass required are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candleabra.

If you want your dining room to be just as have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your own person leads to attention to others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z. K. Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.
